THURSDAY, JULY 9, 1903.

The Capt. E. J. Knew found amounted to about $7,000 Monday and was still growing. Let the good work go on.

Sheriff CALLAHAN of Breathitt County, who is investigating the murders, has been unable to get a trial at the present time. He would have been exonerated anyhow.

Passenger ROOSEVELT cabled around the world in twelve minutes and received a reply back over the same route in nine and a half minutes. This is the first time in any Presidential campaign.

The position of the American Jew in the War against the outrages on the Jews will not air up any rumpus. The U. S. change at Petersburg will inquire of the Russian government whether it will be received and the general will say so. That will practically end the matter.

Gen. CASSIUS C. CLAY is in court again like the human voices he has always been. He is sick and the various relatives and doctors to Whitham only know what advises when they come, no matter how long the distance they had traveled. He seems determined to make a sensation to the end of his life.

Capt. E. J. Knew will be encountered by traps to teeth at the special term of Circuit Court at Jackson July 20th, called to investigate the burning of Eva's home. The trial will be held in Court to identify Capt. Jett and White. He will not stand trial and will be tried at the trial of Jett and White at Cyrenia July 21st.

EVANVILLE, Ind., had a big race over the killing of a police officer by the police themselves. As has been the custom of the members of their race in wrongdoing these troubles will occur and grow worse as the years go on.

"It is perhaps natural with the recollection of the terrible tragedies at Bellows, Ill., and Wilmington, N. C., from the one's mind, that the negroes should express regret over the lynching of two of their race in such a harsh and cruel way."

"This does not, however, offer any excuse for such language as the following uttered by a negro preacher in the pulpit of the pulpit of a Christian church:

"Be a law unto yourselves, as did the outlaws Tracy; be your own sheriff and jayhawkers, as the white men do. Those who are with the negro should be taken to jail, as the negroes are not fit to be free."

"The negroes in many localities give aid to criminals. Pow would rely a hand to bring to justice as of their race, even if guilty of the most heinous offense."

"The first step towards breaking up a society could not be had by the negroes themselves. If the negroes were to be the ones as a race, it would begin housekeeping immediately.

The correspondent extends best wishes to this happy couple. May they ever be happy now."

Moore's Ferry,
John Norton Spangler died
July 3d, at 60.

Robert Serrall and family visited John Ogle at Salt Lick Sunday.

Thomas F. Razer visited his brother John H. Razer, at Fleming County, Sunday.

Several of our people spent the Fourth at the Salt Lick picnic and the day splendidly.

Miles Lillibore, Mary Charles and Hattie brough visited Miss Lucy Atkinson at Salt Lick, Saturday and Sunday.

We think it is wrong for members of the church to play baseball on Sunday, "when every Sunday is a day of rest."

Moses Smith and Miss Eliza Serrall were married Sunday, July 5, by B. H. Rees. Mr. Serrall is a son of Allen Spence, of this place. Miss Lucy Atkinson was the maid of honor. The bride was dressed in a white gown.
